About our guest:

Congressman Sam Farr, represents California's 20th Congressional District, the Central Coast. Throughout his 20-year tenure, he has been a leading advocate for California agriculture, an outspoken activist for affordable housing and a champion of the oceans.

In Congress since 1993, Sam Farr serves on the powerful House Appropriations Committee which oversees the distribution of the federal budget. He is the Ranking Member of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, and Food and Drug Administration, as well as sits on the Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs.

Mr. Farr co-chairs the Congressional Organic Caucus, Congressional Travel & Tourism Caucus, Defence Communities Caucus, House Oceans Caucus, and Unexploded Ordnance Caucus. Prior to serving in Congress, he served twelve years in the California State Assembly and six years as Monterey County Supervisor.

Sam Farr began his career in public service in 1964 as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Colombia where he spent 2 years in a poor barrio near Medellin, teaching community development skills. He is fluent in Spanish. Mr. Farr has used his experience in Colombia to become a congressional leader on Colombian affairs. Among other Foreign Affairs positions, Sam Farr has consistently opposed the war in Iraq and he has been vocal in efforts to prevent military action against Iran.

He was raised in Carmel, California, and is married to Shary Baldwin Farr. He graduated from Willamette University in Salem, Oregon and attended the Monterey Institute of International Studies and the University of Santa Clara. Sam Farr is a member of our UNA Monterey Bay Chapter.
